The Calvin Seminary and Christian School International Certificate in Bible Instruction has been crafted with the Bible teacher in mind.

The Partnership

Christian Schools International (CSI), a respected accreditation and school resource association, has joined with Calvin Theological Seminary to provide premier training for Bible teachers.

The Goal

Together, CSI and Calvin Seminary anticipate the Certificate in Bible Instruction will shape a stronger focus and expectation for professional development in Bible instruction at the K-12 level. Bible courses in Christian schools are not only spiritually formational but also serious academic courses of study that lay a strong foundation for a life grounded in faith and service.

The Program

This fully online, year-round program is designed with a teacher's busy schedule in mind. Through the following courses, this certificate will equip teachers at all grade levels to teach Bible classes steeped in solid theology, excellent pedagogy, and a passion for God's word.
